Summary

- During my whole tenure I worked hard to teach students to improve their Communication Skills and motivated them to work for their personal well being as well as for the development of the college. As convener of cultural and literary committee I do my best to organize various cultural and literary events in and out side the college. As convener of the cultural committee the college has bagged overall championship trophy for display your talent contest held at University of Jammu for the last four years consecutively. As convener of literary committee organized various intra-college debates and the college has bagged national awards for debates and declamation also. As dean students welfare I always inculcated secular values in minds and hearts of students. I have also worked as resource person for the training programme for Master Resource Person (MRP) in English under CSS (MHRD) in collaboration with J&K, RMSA.
